International
Staff Week
2005

Dear Esteemed Guests,

On behalf of the Hungarian University of Fine Arts, I extend a warm welcome to each and every one of you participating in our Second International Week. We are honoured to have you join us for this momentous occasion.

The essence of education lies not only in the pursuit of knowledge within the confines of classrooms but also in the exploration of diverse cultures, traditions, and perspectives from around the world. Events like International Week provide us with an invaluable opportunity to broaden our horizons, build meaningful connections, and cultivate a spirit of global citizenship.

Throughout this week, we have curated a wide range of activities, workshops, and presentations designed to showcase the richness of cultures represented within our university community and beyond. From engaging discussions to captivating performances, we hope this week proves both enlightening and enjoyable for all.

As we embark on this journey together, let us embrace the opportunity to learn from one another. May this International Week serve as a catalyst for forging lasting friendships and fostering a deeper understanding of the world we share.

Once again, welcome to the Hungarian University of Fine Arts' Second International Week. Your presence enriches our community, and we are delighted to share this experience with you.

Warm regards,
